Alpaca Educational Event:

The weekend alpaca event is designed to educate the public regarding the new agricultural opportunities provided in the alpaca industry. There will be ongoing demonstrations and seminars related to the care and training of alpacas, as well as raising alpacas as an agricultural enterprise.

The demonstrations and seminars are free and open to the public and will be repeated throughout the weekend. Continuing educated clinics on fleece, genetics and husbandry are also planned. The activities will begin at 10 a.m. and occur on the hour.

Registrations Due: Postmarked by May 23, 2016. No entries will be accepted after this date.

Check In: Friday June 10th from noon to 6 p.m. All animals should be kept in trailers as the vet check will be done before the animals are unloaded.

Release: 4 p.m. Sunday, June 12th- NO EARLY RELEASE!

Stall Fees: $30 (8ftx8ft)

Vet Check: For important information see the Livestock Regulations

Notes:

1. Farm displays are not allowed in aisles
2. Stalls are assigned in preference to the date the reservation is received. Registration forms must be signed and dated or they will be returned to the applicant.

Alpaca Meet 'N Greet & Silent Auction: A Meet N' Greet from 5-6:30 p.m. is planned for Friday, June 10th in the Alpaca area. This event is free and open to everyone. For more information contact Ron or Denise Haines at 970-484-9420 or daybrkcreation@aol.com

The Silent Auction will be open for bidding beginning at the Meet N' Greet and continues through Sunday, June 14th. All bidding ends at 2 p.m. on Sunday. If you would like to donate alpaca goods, services or breedings for the silent auction, contact the Haines at the contact information above.

Alpaca Products Consignment Sale: If you have a stall in the Alpaca Area and have fleece, yarn or other locally made alpaca products that you would like to display for sale in the our consignment booth, contact Karen Kosakowski or Gina Britton at 970-879-4529 or email Karen at karenkos@yahoo.com.

Please Note:

1. No other sales are allowed in the alpaca area. This means that no items being displayed in your stall can be carried over to the sales booth and sold from there.
2. Anyone who has signed up to sell product from the sales booth may restock their inventory at the close of each day of the show. Karen and Gina will be happy to assist in that process. Please help us maintain our eligibility to sell items in the Alpaca area by observing these rules. Thank you!
